SACRAMENT OF

THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

FIRST FRIDAY AT 8AM MASS

From the Desk of Fr. Chris

Paul prided himself on his self-sufficiency wherever he preached the Gospel, never being a burden on the communities. He knows that the existence of an apostle is marked by the sign of the cross - in facing hunger and want as readily as plenty and abundance. But he is grateful for the charity of the Philippians. The omitted verses, 15-18, are where he really gushes over them and commends them, for they embraced the Good News and supported Paul from the very beginning. Through their generosity they aid, sustain, and participate in his ministry. He's not only grateful for their gift, but more so the action of giving itself - it was a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God and an expression of their discipleship. The Philippians' living out their discipleship is what excites Paul the most!

Bereavement Hospitality Ministry

The Bereavement Hospitality Ministry extends compassion to our brothers and sisters in Christ who are experiencing the loss of a loved one. The Ministry consists of people who provide a light lunch reception (sandwiches, salads and desserts) for the family and friends of the deceased on the day of the funeral in the Community Center. We are currently in need of assistance with this Ministry, such as sandwich/salad makers, bakers, set up, servers, and clean up on the day of the funeral. If you have any other questions or would like to get involved in whatever way you can, please contact Roger Heiman at 721-4974. We need your help. Thank you.

Thanks for getting us a really "nice" freezer that automatically defrosts. It just fits the spot and will be well used.

Casa Maria uses their small freezer for some frozen foods, but mostly to make large ice chunks that are put in their many water containers daily for ice water. The loss of their many year-old donated freezer was devastating. Thank you, parishioners, for supporting the Outreach Ministry so we can provide for special needs like this freezer.
