FIRST FRIDAY AT 8AM MASS

From the Desk of Fr. Chris

I think we all know what Elijah is feeling when he says, "Lord, I've had enough." He's broken and dispirited when we find him – this role as a prophet has been a disaster and now he's fleeing for his life. But God doesn't let him give up. The hearth cake and jug of water are provided for food for the journey to Mt. Horeb, where Elijah will have a spectacular encounter with God in the form of a gentle breeze. (BTW, Mt. Horeb is another name for Mt. Sinai, where Moses had a spectacular encounter with God.) It seems to be a common theme, in scripture and the lives of disciples in general, that at our bleakest moments God will sustain us to make it through our struggles for what awaits. We just have to persist and remember that after those "desert experiences" is a spectacular encounter with God!

BREAKING OPEN THE SCRIPTURE WITH FR. CHRIS

Gatherings will resume on Friday mornings beginning September 7 at 9:00am in Conference Room A/B. This is a free-flowing discussion of the Biblical texts led by Fr. Chris. Come in and check it out! All are welcome.

Fr. Richard's class begins Saturday, Oct. 6, from 9-11am. This year the subject is Christology; understanding Jesus. What does scripture and two millennia of theology teach us about Christology? Fr. Richard will supplement and reflect on 12 thoughtful Lectures by Fr. Robin Ryan, C.P., PhD. in this Fall, Winter Series. The series begins Saturday, October 6, and will meet in the hall or chapel the first Saturdays of November, December, January, February and March from 9-11am. As you reflect upon your own portrait of Jesus, you will be enriched from the insights of Scripture and Theology. Come journey into the heart of our Christian faith. Please sign up in the Community Center near the bulletin board by Oct. 1.

Wednesday, August 15, is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses for that day will be in the church on Tuesday evening, August 14, at 6pm and Wednesday morning, August 15, at 8am.
