SACRAMENT OF

THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

FIRST FRIDAY AT 8AM MASS

From the Desk of Fr. Chris

“How could you do this to us? Don’t you know we were worried sick?” How many of you have lived out this scene or some variation? Maybe you heard it growing up, or maybe you said it while your children were growing up. For whatever reason this message was conveyed, we probably would all agree that it wasn’t our best moment of familial life – all that conflict within our own families! That’s why I’m thankful this is the Gospel for the Feast of the Holy Family. Here is our only insight of Jesus growing up, and there’s conflict in the Holy Family. Far too often we have this image that the Holy Family was perfect, without flaws, never a conflict, just a peace filled and idyllic existence. We think we fall so short when we look at the chaos of our own families. As we recover from Christmas Day and make the transition back into Ordinary Time in a few weeks, remember this: Love, not perfection, makes a Family Holy.
