FIRST FRIDAY AT 8AM MASS

From the Desk of Fr. Chris

This weekend marks the third anniversary of the death of a dear family friend, Kent Harrison. I have his obituary in my breviary at this time so every year I come across it. Underlined by my uncle is, "As Kent said many times in his life, 'What a privilege it is to receive and give away God's love during my life.'" What a tremendous statement of discipleship and it seems to echo Paul's encouraging words in the second reading, passing on what we have received from the Lord. We all have encountered people like that, who are just a joy to be around. And what is joy but the presence and awareness of God? May we all be sharers of God's love and joy!

Fr. Chris †
