From the Desk of Fr. Chris

The classic radio show, The Shadow, began with "Who knows what evil lurks in the hearts of men? The Shadow knows!" In the Gospel Jesus says that "wicked designs come from the deep recesses of the heart." Is the human heart evil? Catholic tradition is fairly optimistic about human nature. We believe in people's basic goodness, though we are capable of inflicting much pain and suffering. The late Dominican writer Gerald Vann describes the human heart this way: "The heart of man is an abyss. There is room in it for infinity because in it there is an infinity of desire; and it cannot remain empty; the stark horror of alien evil will inhabit it if it is not filled by the limitless ocean of the goodness of God." Nature abhors a vacuum. The infinite desire of our hearts will be filled – we choose how it will be filled. It is God's desire that we allow Him to fill us with the limitless ocean of His Goodness.

Fr. Richard's class begins Saturday, Oct. 6, from 9-11am.

This year the subject is Christology; understanding Jesus. What does scripture and two millennia of theology teach us about Christology? Fr. Richard will supplement and reflect on 12 thoughtful Lectures by Fr. Robin Ryan, C.P., PhD. in this Fall, Winter Series. The series begins Saturday, October 6, and will meet in the hall or chapel the first Saturdays of November, December, January, February and March from 9-11am. As you reflect upon your own portrait of Jesus, you will be enriched from the insights of Scripture and Theology. Come journey into the heart of our Christian faith. Please sign up in the Community Center near the bulletin board by October 1.

Have You Moved?
