From the Desk of Fr. Chris

These last weeks of the Liturgical Year the readings shift focus on the Eschaton, the end times. The Kingdom of God, and the establishment of the Kingdom, becomes the major theme. Next Sunday, the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year, is the Feast of Christ the King. We look forward to the future, in our view, and pray more fervently "Thy Kingdom come." But we should remember we already do experience the Kingdom. My favorite description of the Kingdom is "the already, not yet." It means we already experience the Kingdom, just not in its fullness; we get glimpses; we get a taste; we know it already. Wherever Jesus went, whenever he healed someone, whenever he spoke, there the Kingdom was present and breaking through. It also means that as His disciples, wherever we go, whenever we speak or whenever we act, we pray that there, too, the Kingdom is breaking through.

Fr. Chris †

E Pluribus Unum: From the Many, One Were you taught that it is impolite to discuss politics and religion in mixed company? Our nation is soul weary from uncivil discourse. In this workshop we'll return to our roots, and our root words, actively studying what we say it means to be a citizen in our United States. For example, to com-pro-mise means to be together for the mission! Catholic means uni-versal. Oneness is our name. How can a conscious Catholic faith lift us above partisan divides and contribute to a more perfect union? Join Dominican Father Nathan Castle for a spiritual workshop on Sat., Nov. 23, 1pm to 3:45pm at Most Holy Trinity Church, 1300 N. Greasewood. If you like, stay for the 4pm vigil mass celebrating the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Reservations: Mike or Susan Taylor at Ltcbear@att.net.

Becoming Catholic

The annual process for welcoming adults into the Catholic Church is under way. It is a spiritual journey that brings men and women to the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil and into the Body of Christ forever. The process is especially for persons who are: 1) Unbaptized; 2) Baptized in another Christian church; or 3) Catholic adults who have not been Confirmed. Preliminary meetings have begun. Check the website for more information or stop by the Parish Office for an info sheet.
