FIRST FRIDAY AT 8AM MASS

From the Desk of Fr. Chris

Surely, there could have been other passages chosen to be proclaimed on this day when the Church throughout the world celebrates the Feast of Christ the King. Think of the options! He was truly regal when he calmed the seas and commanded the winds. His power was obvious when he fed the multitudes. His authority visible when he cast out demons. His wisdom apparent when he debated with the Pharisees. And yet, the Church in her wisdom, gives us this passage - Jesus at the low point of his life... Catch how often he's prodded to "Save yourself!" The rulers sneer, soldiers jeer, and the thief reviles him: "Save yourself." The response of Jesus - it's not to save himself, but to save another - "This day you will be with me in paradise." It's not to save himself, but to sacrifice himself. This is the King we follow. This is the King we imitate.

Please be generous in this week's second collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people live in poverty. In addition 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. For more info, please visit www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Becoming Catholic

The annual process for welcoming adults into the Catholic Church is under way. It is a spiritual journey that brings men and women to the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil and into the Body of Christ forever. The process is especially for persons who are: 1) Unbaptized; 2) Baptized in another Christian church; or 3) Catholic adults who have not been Confirmed. Preliminary meetings have begun. Check the website for more info or stop by the Parish Office for an information sheet.
