From the Desk of Fr. Chris

I don't know about you, but I waste a lot of time and effort trying to figure out how to get away with the bare minimum. Do I have to wear a dress coat or can I get away with a sweater for this or that event? How many sentences constitute a Pastor's Bulletin article? How little can I do and still call myself a disciple? That's the real issue in today's Gospel.

Far too many times I treat my discipleship like a laundry list of things to check off and move on – I didn't lie, cheat, or steal today so I'm all good. "You have heard... But I say..." Jesus is always pushing us to go beyond ourselves as disciples and always to take the next step. There is no minimum threshold when following Jesus. We can never say I've loved enough, I've forgiven enough, I've been merciful enough, I've been generous enough, I've welcomed enough, and so on. For a disciple, there is always more we can do.

Fr. Chris ✝
