From the Desk of Fr. Chris

Happy Easter! A special thank you to all the various ministers that volunteered their time and effort to make all the different liturgies of Holy Week so special! Easter is such a special and defining feast for the Christian community. It's a feast so grand that it spans eight days, Sunday to Sunday. We'll celebrate the Easter season for fifty days until Pentecost. We fasted for 40 days during Lent; we feast for the 50 days of Easter to show that "God is greater than our hearts." (1Jn 3:20) Easter is a week of weeks –  $7 \times 7 \text{ days} + 1 = 50$ . That extra day is eschatological, the day beyond the week, the first day of the new creation. The Feast of Weeks in Greek is "Pentecost", literally 50 days. In our Jewish roots "Pentecost" referred to the feast of Shavuot, the giving of the Torah at Mt. Sinai 50 days after Passover. For us, "Pentecost" is the celebration of the giving of the Holy Spirit, and that feast is 50 days after the Resurrection. So for the next month and a half, Happy Easter!

We had a successful blood drive collecting 21 units of whole blood which was our goal! Many thanks to our generous donors who gave the gift of life. The walk-ins were much appreciated for their willingness to give of themselves. Such a wonderful Lenten gesture by all.

Religious Brothers Day

RELIGIOUS BROTHERS DAY is a celebration of non-ordained religious brothers who take the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience. This event takes place annually on May 1st, the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker. St. Joseph was known for his service, deep faith, and accompaniment of Jesus, relational traits that many religious brothers live out in their work and vocation.

In the Rule of the Brothers, it is written, "all are responsible for awakening vocations in the Church."

Today in the United States, there are nearly 4,100 religious brothers serving in ministries which are as varied as the brothers themselves, many living with-in mixed communities of priests and brothers. They are committed to the compassion, service, and accompaniment of the poor and those in need.

Religious Education the Family Way Family Faith Formation

In April the families have been focused on Eucharist and the Easter Story. It's the grand climax to all we've been learning and preparing for since October.

The more we do something, the more we tend to forget the significance behind the actions. Before he died, Jesus did a strange thing. He told his friends that the bread was his body, his life. We are to eat it and remember him. We are to remember his life and follow his teachings of forgiveness and love. Of course we will stumble and fall many times, but that's okay as long as we get up and keep going.

As you see the children receive their First Communions, take a moment to remember your own. Getting to know Jesus is important not just for those preparing for First Communion, but for all of us. We come together at mass to be nourished by the Body of Christ. That includes us as well as the Eucharist. Our faith is truly beautiful and mysterious.

For more information about Family Faith Formation contact Suzanne Hensel, Coordinator of Family Ministry and Children's Sacrament Preparation at shensel@cccctucson.org
shensel@cccctucson.org

Plaza Fountain

We have a beautiful fountain in our plaza and ask your help with not only preserving its beauty but ensuring it operates properly. Our maintenance staff often finds the decorative rock and other objects on the inside of the fountain, collecting at the bottom. We ask that nothing be thrown in the fountain as it will cause damage. We appreciate your help!

Innovative RE (Religious Education)

Teaches religious and spiritual lessons using prayer and meditation, Bible Study, relatable, fun projects, and community outreach services. The class is for ages K—5th grade, and Junior Youth Group 6th—8th grade. Sessions are held on Wednesday, 4:30—5:30pm, year-round with breaks for camp and holidays. Contact Stacey at sbeste@cccctucson.org for more details.
