The Pastor's Musings—

(continuation from last week's Bulletin)

Does God Always Heal?

Today some Christians go to extremes in their expectation of divine healing. On one hand, some say that if a Christian is not healed of all his diseases, this reflects his lack of faith. Others claim that divine healings were only for the apostolic age, when all diseases were healed instantly and automatically. Both extremes are wrong.

God does not always heal the physical infirmities that afflict us. St. Paul preached to the Galatians while he was afflicted by a "bodily ailment" (Gal. 4:13–14). He also mentions that he had to leave his companion Trophimus in the town of Miletus because he was too sick to travel (2 Tim. 4:20). In his first letter to Timothy, St. Paul urges his young protégé to "no longer drink only water, but to use a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments" (1 Tim. 5:23).

The last passage is especially informative. Not only does it reveal that illnesses were not always healed in the apostolic age, but it also shows an apostle's practical advice to a fellow Christian on how to deal with an illness. Notice that St. Paul does not tell Timothy to pray harder and have more faith that God will heal him from his stomach ailment. Rather, he tells him how to manage the illness through medicinal means.

Some argue that healings were always instantaneous and were only for those living during the apostolic age, but that afterward the gift of healing disappeared. The problem with that theory is that the Bible tells us otherwise. For example, when Jesus healed the blind man at Bethsaida, He laid His hands upon him twice before the man was fully healed (Mark 8:22–26).

Finally, we have a standing command of the New Testament in James 5:14–15, cited earlier. This command is never revoked anywhere in the Bible, and there are no statements anywhere that God will cease to heal. Thus, the command is in effect to this very day.

Of course, our healing, like all things, is subject to God's will. As St. James pointed out just a chapter earlier, "You do not know about tomorrow. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes. Instead you ought to say, 'If the Lord wills, we shall live and we shall do this or that'" (Jas. 4:14–15, emphasis added). We have a promise of healing, but not an unqualified one. But healing is conditional on the will of God.

Why Doesn't God Always Heal?

We might ask the question: If God can heal us, why doesn't he? Why isn't it always His will to do so? One answer to this question is found in the spiritual discipline and training that can result from facing illness and adversity. Scripture says, "It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? . . . For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant; later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it" (Heb. 12:7, 11).

Catechetical Sunday – September 20, 2026

A Prayer for Catechists

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists. We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church.

Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word. Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you.

Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning, right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son.

Amen.

Please be attentive to possible changes while using any of our facilities.

Ways to Donate to your Parish

Beyond that, we envision publishing an index of available titles, authors, and topics on the parish website.

Walk with Someone on Their Faith Journey

Have you ever considered walking alongside someone as they discover the Catholic faith? Do you sense God calling you to deepen your faith? Our Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) ministry is seeking faithful Catholics to serve as sponsors.

A sponsor is not expected to have all the answers. Rather, a sponsor is willing to accompany another person with prayer, encouragement, friendship, and the witness of a lived Catholic faith. Many sponsors discover that the experience deepens their own relationship with Christ and enriches their understanding of the faith.

Prayerfully consider coming to one of our Sponsor orientation & information sessions held on the following dates after 9:45 Mass in the community center:

Sunday, August 30th

Sunday, September 27th

Sunday, October 11th

Please contact Sylvia Olberding at sylvia.olberding@gmail.com or 520-268-3413 for more information.

Did you know?

Sign up to Carry the Gifts

There is a book on the table to the left of the doors into the sanctuary where you can sign up to carry the Eucharistic gifts to the altar during Mass, as an individual, a couple, or a family. This is a special way to take part in the Mass. While not necessary, some opt to do this to commemorate a birthday, an anniversary, or another occasion. On the date you sign up, please make yourselves known to the ushers before Mass.

Memorial Bricks

Individuals can have a personalized brick engraved in our existing Plaza bricks as an excellent way to support our community, offer tribute to persons living or deceased, or show enduring esteem for some work of the community. The bricks are available for a cost of $150 per brick. This fee helps cover the cost of engraving and assists the Building Fund. (Seek the advice of your tax professional about the applicability of donations to your individual tax situation.)*

Forms are available in the parish office or on our website. If you have additional questions, please contact Kara Montaño at the Parish Office or email: kmontano@cccctucson.org.
