The Pastor's Musings—

(continuation from last week's Bulletin)

What are "Last Rites"?

In his steadfast love for us, the Lord gives us the sacraments involved in the last rites to comfort us in our final days and prepare us for the journey ahead. "These include penance (or confession), confirmation (when lacking), anointing of the sick. . . and Viaticum (which is meant to be the last reception of Communion for the journey from this life to eternity). . . ."

"The present ritual orders these sacraments in two ways. The 'continuous rites of penance and anointing' include: Introductory Rites, Liturgy of Penance, Liturgy of Confirmation, Liturgy of Anointing, Liturgy of Viaticum, and Concluding Rites. The 'rite for emergencies' includes the sacrament of penance, Apostolic Pardon, Lord's Prayer, Communion as Viaticum, prayer before anointing, anointing, concluding prayer, blessing, sign of peace" (Fr. Peter Stravinskis, Catholic Encyclopedia, 572).

The most important part of the last rites is the reception of the Lord in one's final Communion, also called "Viaticum" (Latin: that which you take on the road, i.e., provisions for a journey). This special Communion prepares us to travel with the Lord on the final part of our journey.

The comfort of Viaticum has been valued by Christians since the beginning of Church history. The first ecumenical council, held at Nicaea in 325, decreed: "Concerning the departing, the ancient canonical law is still to be maintained, to wit, that, if any man be at the point of death, he must not be deprived of the last and most indispensable Viaticum" (canon 13). Having repented of our sins and received reconciliation, we travel with the Lord Jesus out of this earthly life and to eternal happiness with him in heaven.

From the earliest times, the sacrament of the anointing of the sick was cherished among Christians, not only in immediate danger of death, but even at the beginning sign of danger from illness or old age. A sermon of Caesar of Arles (ca. A.D. 470-542) contains the following: "As often as some infirmity overtakes a man, let him who is ill receive the body and blood of Christ; let him humbly and in faith ask the presbyters for blessed oil, to anoint his body, so that what was written may be fulfilled in him: 'Is anyone among you sick? Let him bring in the presbyters, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil; and the prayer of faith will save the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he be in sins, they will be forgiven him. . . . See to it, brethren, that whoever is ill hasten to the church, both that he may receive health of body and will merit to obtain the forgiveness of his sins" (Sermons 13[325]:3).

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

This weekend we celebrate "Priesthood Sunday." This special day is set aside to honor priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the central role of the priesthood in the life of the Church. Without our priests, the Mass could not be offered and the Sacraments could not be celebrated. Please take a minute to think about how you can say "thank you" to the priests who serve our faith community.

Journey of Faith - Parish Library

Have you thought about strengthening and broadening your faith? Reading about the saints and their lives is one way to inspire you.

To make your journey of faith more enjoyable, the library is in the process of updating, organizing, and rearranging our growing inventory of books and videos to better serve parishioners. In order to smooth the process, we are seeking a couple of volunteers who can help with this important apostolate. Initially, the goal will be to ensure materials are correctly categorized. Beyond that, we envision publishing an index of available titles, authors, and topics on the parish website.

If you would like to help, please contact Kay Dahms at kdahms@mac.com or through the parish office.

Walk with Someone on Their Faith Journey

Have you ever considered walking alongside someone as they discover the Catholic faith? Do you sense God calling you to deepen your faith? Our Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) ministry is seeking faithful Catholics to serve as sponsors.

A sponsor is not expected to have all the answers. Rather, a sponsor is willing to accompany another person with prayer, encouragement, friendship, and the witness of a lived Catholic faith. Many sponsors discover that the experience deepens their own relationship with Christ and enriches their understanding of the faith.

Prayerfully consider coming to one of our Sponsor orientation & information sessions held on the following dates after 9:45 Mass in the community center:

Our buildings and grounds are "maturing" with use and time which means there are occasional, usually minor, hazards popping up. For example, tree roots in the courtyard have begun to move brick paving in some areas so that it is no longer perfectly flat. Please be attentive to possible changes while using any of our facilities.
